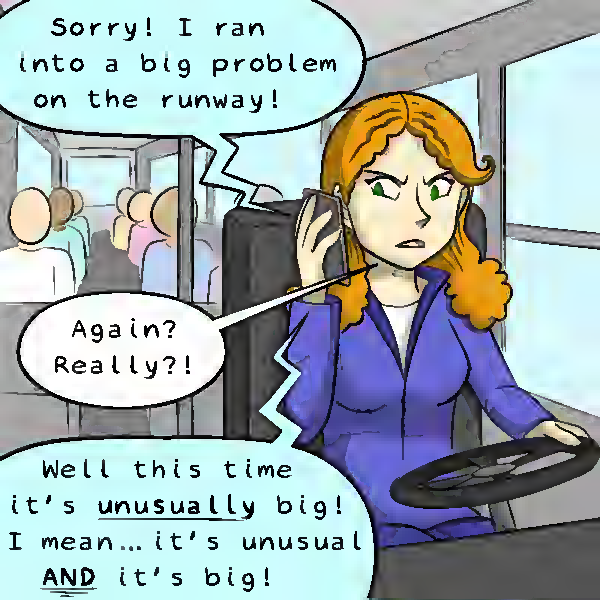
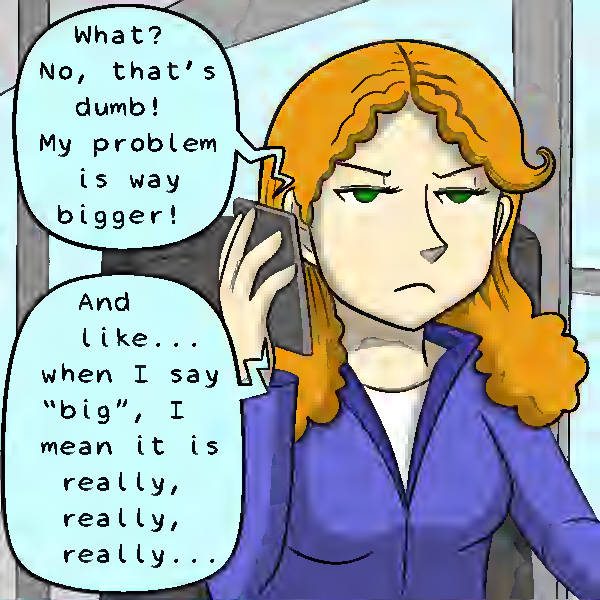
Hey, what's the hold up? Your bus is 20 minutes behind schedule!
These passengers are about to miss their flights!



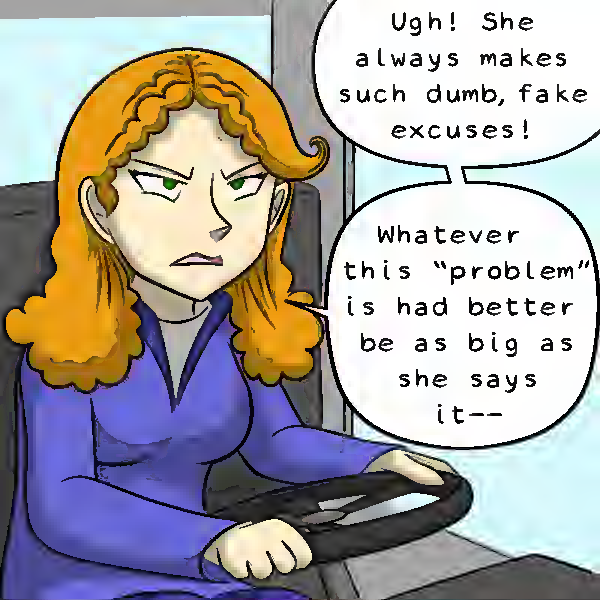
Sorry! I ran into a big problem on the runway!
Again? Really?!
Well this time it's unusually big! I mean... it's unusual AND it's big!

Oh?
Care to specify?
Actually, let me guess.
It's something ridiculous, like a horde of flying elephants blocking your way?

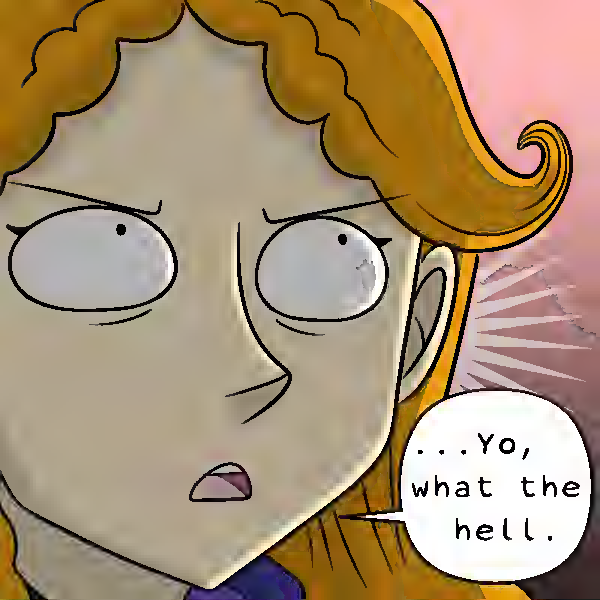


What? No, that's dumb! My problem is way bigger!
And like... when I say "big", I mean it is really, really, really...

..really,
really,
really,
rea!
Okay!
I get the picture!



Ugh! She always makes such dumb, fake excuses!
Whatever this "problem" is had better be as big as she says it--



...Yo, what the hell.
